

Call of Duty – Warzone is a similar game to Fortnite in many ways, you are dropped onto an island in a team of 4 and you fight to the death, effectively. You can remove the blood and gore content as well as mute all other players which is a plus for this game. This is another in the long line of “Battle Royale” style games that have arisen and in the first few months of release this looks to be extremely popular with teen users.

In the main menu of the game, click → Top right corner “Social” → Select “Recent Players” → select the player you want to report then → Click “Report Player”

BESIDES PLAYING, USERS WILL WATCH LIVE STREAM MATCHES. IN APRIL 2020 MORE THAN 45 MILLION PEOPLE TUNED IN, IN ONE DAY.

EVEN IF YOU HAVE NEVER BOUGHT CALL OF DUTY YOUR CHILD CAN DOWNLOAD THIS GAME. IT IS A PEGI 18 GAME

Call of Duty - Warzone

GOOD POINTS

1. Unlike other versions of Call of Duty, you can turn the gore and a lot of the violence in the game off. Although fundamentally you are 'shooting to kill'.
2. It is free to play with no adverts; it has a similar feel to Fortnite.
3. Because of how big the map is and how long each 'round' takes, some parents have found their children LESS addicted to this game compared to others.
4. There are a lot of parental control settings within the game, which is unusual for this type of game.

BAD POINTS

1. The aim of the game is to shoot and kill your opponent, for younger users this can be a disturbing game to give your child. Even with all the violence and gore you can possibly remove.
2. There is always the risk of encountering online strangers, as you are teamed up upon entry into the game and this can be with random players.
3. You may find your child can download this without your knowledge, making it important to keep an eye on what they are doing.

Parent Opinion:

Father of a 12-year-old

I found out that you can turn the blood, gore, and swearing off. There are also no dead bodies lying around. And the stickers are not as bad as I thought if you have ever seen someone in a bikini, then you should be fine considering that a bikini shows more than the stickers.
