

Subject Overview: Geography

	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Autumn	A Local Study – Purbrook  Place Knowledge            To understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the UK. The UK—A New Beginning  Locational Knowledge            To name and locate counties and cities of the UK, compare geographical regions and their identifying human and physical characteristics, explore key topographical features (including hills, mountains, coasts and rivers), and land use patterns, and understand how some of these aspects have changed over time.	Volcanos and Earthquakes  Physical Geography            To describe and understand key aspects of physical geography, including volcanos and earthquakes.            NA Study (San Francisco)            Place Knowledge            To understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the UK, a region in a European country and a region within North America European Study (Naples)  Place Knowledge            To understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the UK, and a region in a European Country.	Economic activity (dockyard)  Human Geography            To describe and understand key aspects of human geography, including economic activity including trade links.            Tudor link            Locational Knowledge            To name and locate counties and cities of the UK, geographical regions, and their identifying human and physical characteristics, key topographical features and land-use patterns and understand how some of these aspects have changed over time.	Distribution of natural resources  Human Geography            To describe and understand key aspects of human geography, including the distribution of natural resources including energy, food, minerals and water.

Spring	UK Region—(Skara Brae)  Human Geography          To describe and understand key aspects of human geography, including types of settlement and land use,		Climate zones, Biomes and vegetation belts  Physical Geography          To describe and understand key aspects of physical geography, including climate zones, biomes and vegetation belts.          SA region study          Place Knowledge          To understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region within South America.	Water cycle  Physical Geography          To describe and understand key aspects of physical geography, including rivers, mountains and the water cycle.
Summer	Local Study—(Romans Link)  London/Rome  Place Knowledge          To understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the UK.          Study of a region in a European Country – tracking the journey of the Roman invasion. Beginning with a Rome study, locations in France and southern England.	Vikings link  Place Knowledge          To understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the UK and a region in Scandinavia.	Greek link  Place Knowledge          To understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the UK, and a region in a European Country.	WW2 link—European Study  Place Knowledge          To understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the UK, and a region in a European Country.